

From Main Page

Manage Users

From this page the user should have the ability to perform simple maintenance of the 'monitorusers' table of the database

Create Users

When creating a new user, a form will be displayed that will contain fields for required information. The new user will either be a basic user or an admin user.

Editing Users

All users should have the ability to change their own information. Admin users will have the ability to change any users information

